(YOUR CENTER OR ORGANIZATION) ANSWERS THE YOUTH SERVICE CALL

(Subhead highlighting your specific plan)

*(CITY, St.) – On (Friday, April 24; Saturday, April 25; or Sunday, April 26), (YOUR CENTER/ORGANIZATION) joined an estimated 2 million young Americans participating in Global Youth Service Day (GYSD) activities nationwide. By (DOING WHAT... WITH/FOR WHOM... WHERE... AND, IF APPROPRIATE, WHY – SUM UP THE BASIC HIGHLIGHTS OF YOUR GYSD ACTIVITY IN A PHRASE – e.g., “tutoring elementary school students with America’s Promise.”), (your center name) students demonstrated their commitment to addressing the needs of their community and its citizens.*

INSERT QUOTE FROM CENTER DIRECTOR: “GYSD provides Job Corps students with a unique opportunity to ‘give something back’ to our community (or NAME OF YOUR COMMUNITY) by using their Job Corps training to benefit others. Each year, Job Corps provides training and support to more than 100,000 young people. Job Corps also teaches social skills and encourages leadership development, and GYSD is a great way for our students to build their leadership skills through community service.”

(YOUR CENTER OR ORGANIZATION) (DESCRIBE ACTIVITIES in more detail, including WHO [how many volunteers, any VIPs?], WHAT [relevant info on what they did], WHERE [specific physical location], WHEN [exact time], WHY [purpose/objective – describe impact on local community and link to Job Corps mission]. Think in terms of “why is this news? /why would a reporter want to cover this? /why would a viewer/listener/reader want to know about this?” when drafting your description.)

INSERT QUOTE FROM STUDENT OR STAFF WHO WAS INVOLVED (if student – why they enjoyed it, how they applied what they learned in Job Corps; if staff – how it was an opportunity to represent Job Corps and play a role in/give back to the community).

*SUGGESTION: To personalize the story for your local media, consider attaching a list of all Job Corps student volunteers, including names, ages, hometowns and trades. It would also be beneficial to include pictures from the event.
