FROM: RICHARD C. TRIGG

SUBJECT: PRH Chapter 6, Section 6.9, R2 – Clarification of Job Corps’ Religious Worship Policy

1. Purpose. To provide additional clarification of Job Corps’ religious worship policy.
2. Background. As a comprehensive program with numerous service providers, Job Corps does not exclude faith-based organizations from offering support services to students on center. Job Corps’ policy regarding religious worship on center relates specifically to religious worship services; this is separate and distinct from support services provided to students by religious entities. Religious organizations, to the same extent as any other organizations, may provide non-religious services on center, such as mentoring, recreational activities, tutoring, or other services.
3. Explanation of Change. Revise PRH Section 6.9, R2 – Religious Worship, to clarify the distinction between providing religious services on center and religious organizations that provide non-religious services on center.
4. Filing Instructions.
