

Global Youth Service Day (GYSD)/Earth Day Suggested Resources

The three best resources for successful participation in these events are creativity, involvement, and commitment! Get everyone involved. Get their ideas. Get organized, and assign students to get staff supervision and follow through with the projects.

Global Youth Service Day Official Web sites

The following Web site provides information about GYSD, an annual campaign that celebrates and mobilizes millions of children and youth to improve their communities all year through service and service learning.
