¹ The answer (Yes, No, or In Process) is generally based on information from the GED Score Enhancements page; if based on other information (e.g., state website), it will be footnoted.

² The answer (Yes or N/A) is based on one of the following sources of independent confirmation of the status as listed on the GED Score Enhancements page: information found on the State website, a news article or official press release quoting a state official, or a conversation with or email from a state official. A Yes indicates that the status of State adoption has been confirmed whereas an N/A indicates that the status has not been confirmed.

³ Amy Lutzi confirmed that AK has adopted the 145 cut score retroactively. See Notes/Details column.
